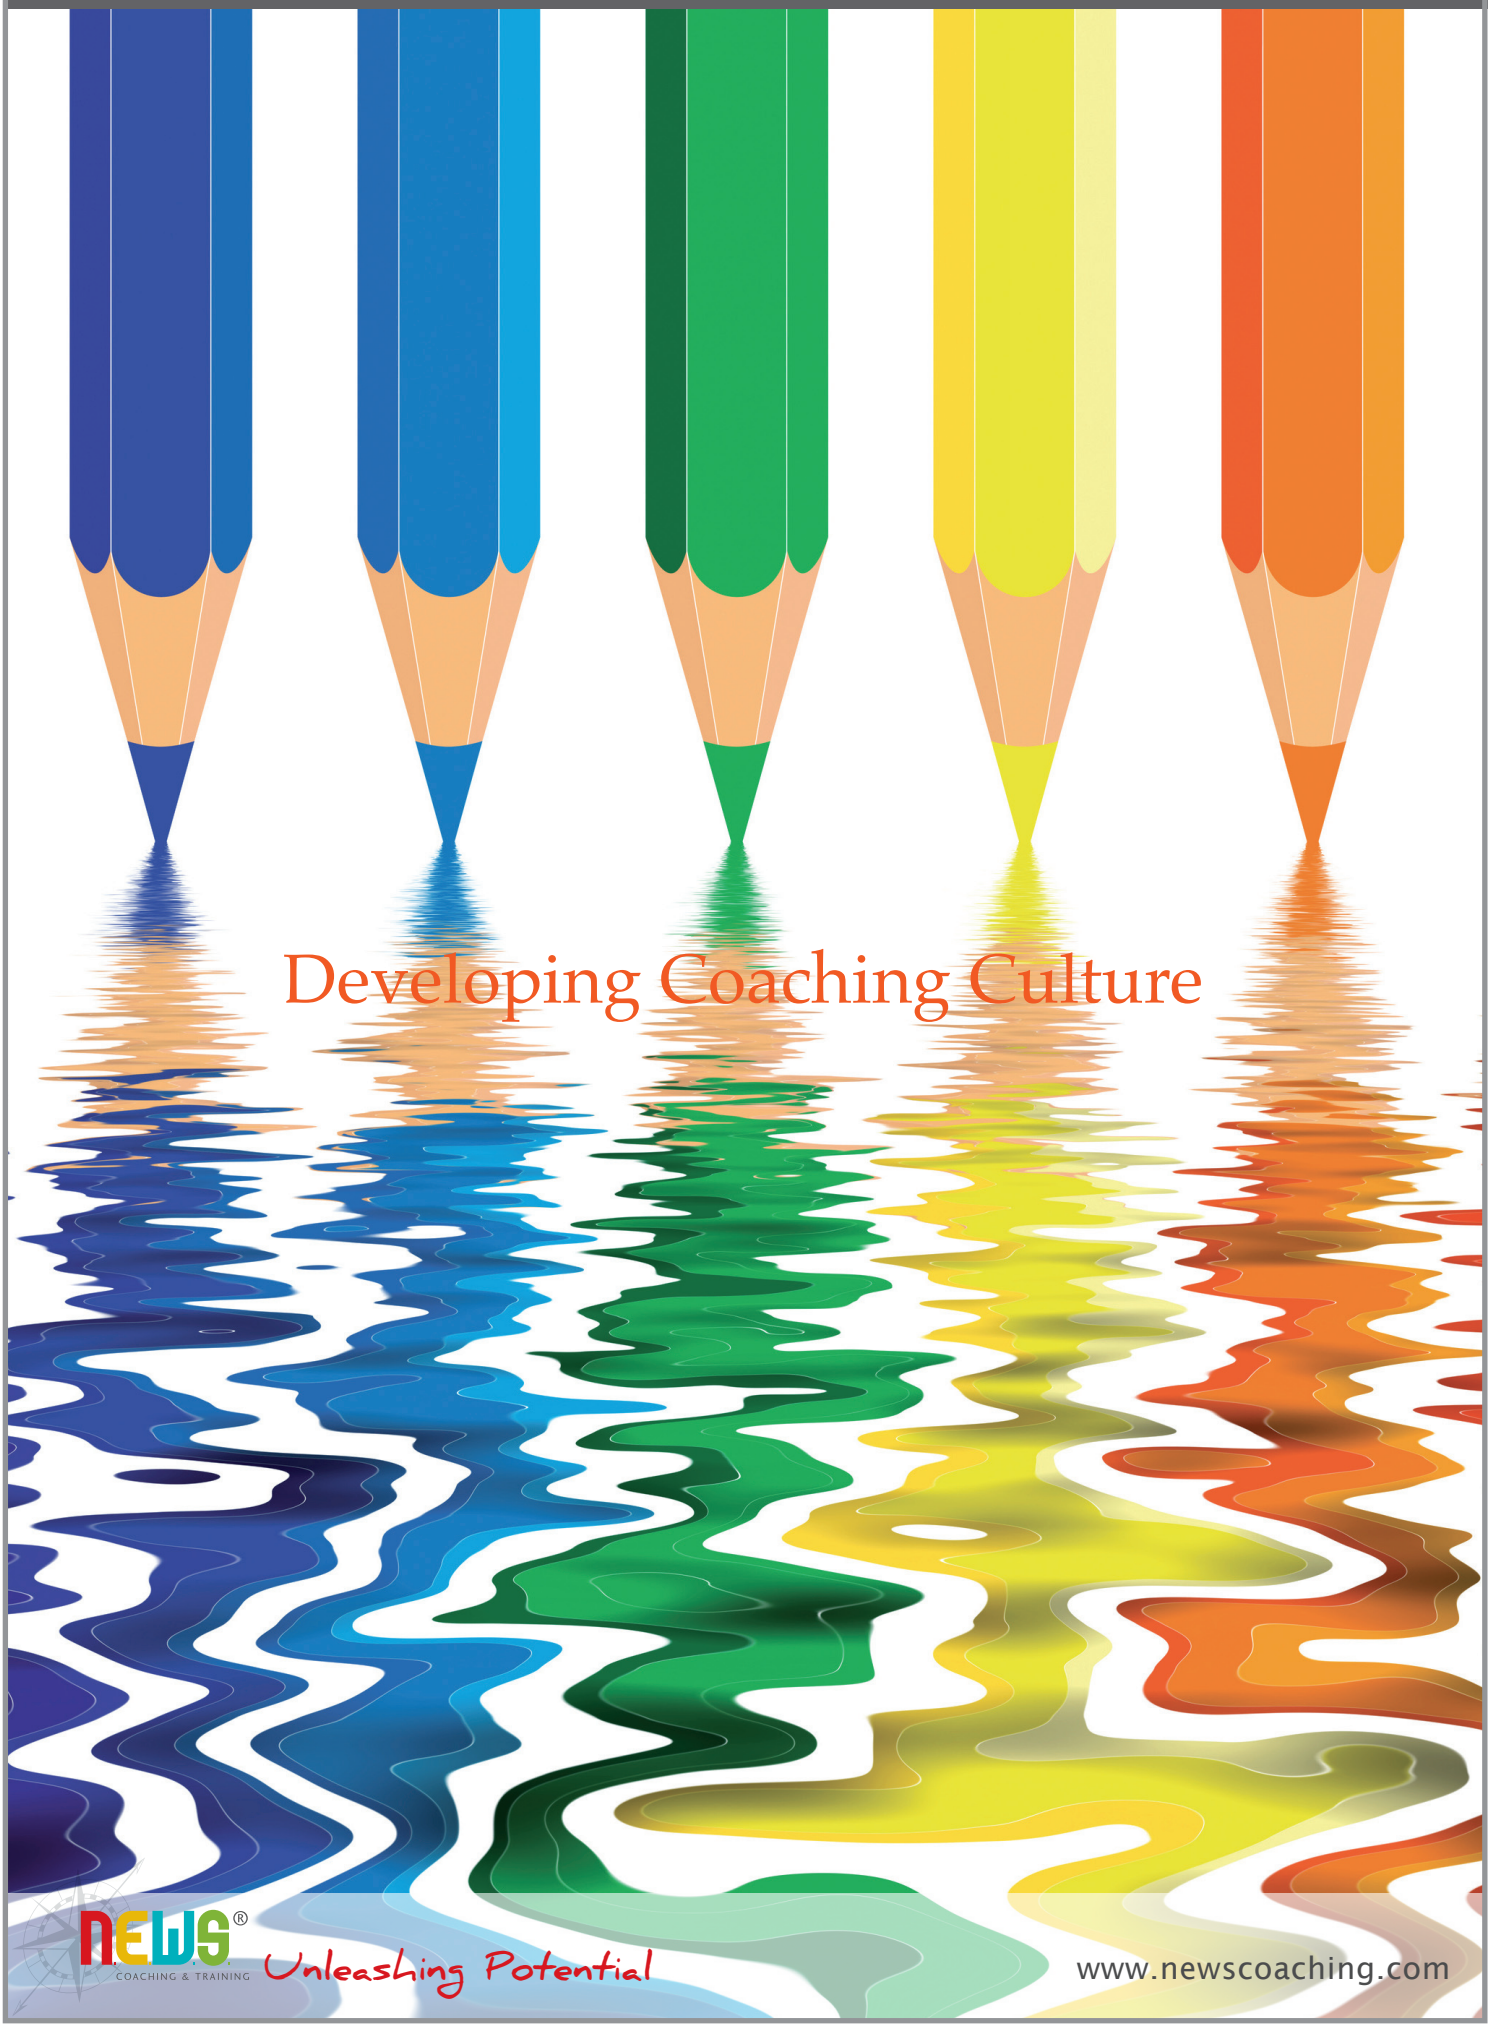
Internal Organizational NEWS™ Coaches



Developing Coaching Culture

NEWS® COACHING & TRAINING

Unleashing Potential

www.newscoaching.com

Internal Organizational NEWS™ Coaches

Today, management requires professional resource that fosters consulting and coaching at various levels of the organization. These demands amplify the need for a management tool that is defined as “Internal Coaching”.

This 6-month comprehensive coaching course structured to train and facilitates managers to actualize full coaching processes as “Internal Coaches”. It provides the skills necessary to interact competently and support others to overcome their current “stuck situations”, unleash their talent, achieve results and express their greatness. This type of coaching develops both players, improves their motivation and long-term results in the organization.

Target Audience

This course is designed for Senior Managers and HR teams/managers with high level of commitment to the process.

Course Outcomes

- Certified Internal Organizational Coaches, acquainted with updated tools and skills
- Committed managers to the development and growth of others in their organization
- Organizational coaching culture is developing and actualized into practice
- Retention of key talents and managers in the organization
- New perspectives on Management and Leadership

Preparation	N.E.W.S.™ Experience	Coaching Skills Acquisition	Internship and Certification
	20 Hours	40 Hours	20 Hours
Conducting N.E.W.S.™ web questionnaire, a week before the course begins for self analysis.	Self-navigation process in a group, to ‘taste’ what is coaching and what their coachee might feel like.	Participants will become acquainted with The N.E.W.S.™ Model, its perceptive and ethics, acquire knowledge, mind-set, skills-set and tool-set and practice Organizational Coaching.	Participants will perform two full coaching processes in the organization, as an integral part of the course. During the internship, a senior N.E.W.S.™ Coach will supervise each participant.